General publishing policies

General publishing policies and related information.

- Access to archive of Cochrane Reviews
- Advertising
- Citation versions: DOIs and URLs
  - Digital object identifier (DOI) and website address (URL) of a Cochrane Review
- Complaints procedure: Cochrane Library
- Complimentary Cochrane Library access for Cochrane authors and Groups
- Co-publication
  - Policy and overview
  - Arranging co-publication of a Cochrane Review
  - Co-publication agreements with other journals
  - Converting systematic reviews (non-Cochrane) to Cochrane Reviews
  - Submitting abstracts to conferences
  - Co-publication forms
  - Reuse of published Cochrane content by Cochrane Groups
- Copyrighted images: using in articles published in the CDSR
- Date fields in Cochrane Reviews: overview
- Editorial notes
- Impact factor
- Licence for publication forms
  - Policy and process
  - Where contributions are owned by Employer
  - Submitting forms on behalf of an author
  - Licence for publication forms for Cochrane Reviews and protocols
  - Licence for publication forms for editorials
    - Standard | Cochrane Editorial
    - Creative Commons | Cochrane Editorial
- Open access
  - Policy overview (open access)
  - Gold open access
  - Green open access
  - Funder mandates
  - How open is it?
- Permission to reuse Cochrane Reviews
  - Re-use of Cochrane Reviews for users and third parties
  - Authors/copyright owners of Cochrane Reviews
  - Inclusion in a thesis or dissertation
  - Cochrane Groups (including Cochrane Review Groups): Abstracts and Plain language summaries
  - Translator terms and conditions
- PROSPERO: International prospective register of systematic reviews