Change in author affiliation

Authors may have more than one affiliation and affiliations may change during the preparation of a Cochrane Review (or other article published in the CDSR
). If an affiliation changes during the preparation of the Cochrane Review, list both past and current affiliation(s), and add a footnote to clarify the change.