General publishing policies

General publishing policies and related information.

- Access to archive of Cochrane Reviews
- Advertising
- Citation versions: DOIs and URLs
    - Digital object identifier (DOI) and website address (URL) of a Cochrane Review
- Complaints procedure: Cochrane Library
- Complimentary Cochrane Library access for Cochrane authors and Groups
- Co-publication
    - Policy and overview
    - Arranging co-publication of a Cochrane Review
    - Co-publication agreements with other journals
    - Converting systematic reviews (non-Cochrane) to Cochrane Reviews
    - Submitting abstracts to conferences
    - Co-publication forms
    - Reuse of published Cochrane content by Cochrane Groups
- Copyrighted images: using in articles published in the CDSR
- Date fields in Cochrane Reviews: overview
- Editorial notes
- Impact factor
- Licence for publication forms
    - Policy and process
    - Where contributions are owned by Employer
    - Submitting forms on behalf of an author
    - Licence for publication forms for Cochrane Reviews and protocols
    - Licence for publication forms for editorials
        - Standard | Cochrane Editorial
        - Creative Commons | Cochrane Editorial
- Open access
    - Policy overview (open access)
    - Gold open access
    - Green open access
    - Funder mandates
    - How open is it?
- Permission to reuse Cochrane Reviews
    - Re-use of Cochrane Reviews for users and third parties
    - Authors/copyright owners of Cochrane Reviews
    - Inclusion in a thesis or dissertation
    - Cochrane Groups (including Cochrane Review Groups): Abstracts and Plain language summaries
    - Translator terms and conditions
- PROSPERO: International prospective register of systematic reviews